TWO MEN DIE BY THEIR OWN HANDS

Employee of Short Line Takes Poison After Losing in Gambling House.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Ogden, Nov. 1.—Two men died of overdose of poisonous drugs in Ogden this morning. They were Dennis Sullivan, aged 49 years, a miner, and Harry E. Blaine, 30 years old, married, and a local employee of the Oregon Short Line.

Sullivan took strychnine in his room at the Central hotel in a fit of despondency.
Blaine pawned a $300 watch, two diamond stud earrings, issued two fictitious checks totalling $150, lost the entire proceeds in a Twenty-fifth street gambling house, and then took a large dose of gum opium in the room of a friend at the Idaho hotel.

Friends of the latter sought the suicide theory, claiming that Blaine took the drug to quiet his mind. The police, however, have evidence that the young man was not in the habit of using the drug. Mystery surrounded Blaine's death until the discovery of his watch, diamonds and worthless checks in a local gambling house tonight. Oregon Short Line auditors will commence an examination of Blaine's account in the company's department, where he was employed, tomorrow morning. No shortage is as yet known of.
That Sullivan contemplated suicide early yesterday was believed by the police learning tonight that he borrowed the money to buy the poison from the O'Connell drug store. Sullivan was little known here and has no surviving relatives.
Blaine entered the room of William Handy, in the Idaho hotel, soon after midnight, apparently for a friendly visit. Handy left the room for several minutes, and upon returning found his friend in a stupor, lying across the bed. Half an hour later he suspected Blaine had taken a drug, and called Dr. W. Green. The young man was beyond relief, however, dying at 1 o'clock this morning.

Congressman Howell and Mrs.
Susa Young Gates Address Enthusiastic Audiences.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Eureka, Nov. 1.—Congressman Howell, Charles M. Morris, W. H. Gregory and Mrs. Susa Young Gates arrived in Eureka this forenoon.

The Women's Republican club had spread a splendid lunch at Republican headquarters, the Eureka Juvenile audience and the hotel and the hospitality of the city was burst out. The predictions are now that Eureka will reverse the Democratic majority it polled two years ago.

After lunch at the Republican headquarters the entire party of speakers, accompanied by the Juvenile band and a number of the Women's Republican club, were taken over to Mammoth, where a large crowd greeted them in the hall of the hotel. The speakers were made by Congressman Howell, Charles M. Morris, James D. Stack of Eureka, T. C. Wynn of the Eureka McKnight and Mrs. Susa Young Gates of Salt Lake.

At the meeting in Mammoth a large crowd of Silver City Republicans was addressed by the same speakers, in the Silver City amusement hall.
At Eureka's Pavilion.

The rally in the Eureka pavilion, at Eureka proved to be the crowning effort of the day. The speakers were the Eureka City band played several selections.

speaker and modestly presented himself as the next long term commissioner of Juab county. Mrs. Gates delivered an able address, which she stated was principally for the women, but she was frequently interrupted with loud applause from the male element.

The address of Congressman Howell was listened to with earnest attention and a splendid effect. He congratulated the Republicans of the Tintic district on the interest and energy shown in the present campaign. He gave a comprehensive account of the Utah

Knight of Provo made a few remarks regarding state issues, and outlined the Democratic stand in regard to the liquor question. Upon closing, Uncle Jesse Knight took a fling at Congressman Joseph Howell.

"I want to say this one thing in response to Mr. Howell's talk to the Congress to save the country, that if Utah keeps on sending Mr. Howell back to Congress the country will be lost."

C. C. Richards, Democratic candidate for the supreme bench, made a short address, in which he paid his compliments to the senior and junior leaders in the state.

B. H. Roberts closed the speaking of the evening, delivering practically the speech which he made at Logan last night, in which he told of the alleged deal between the saloon interests and

PROVO WOMEN HEARD BY SHEPARD

She Gives Democratic Party Kindly Pat on the Back for Prohibition Plank.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Provo, Nov. 1.—The Democratic party of Utah was given a kindly pat on the back tonight by Mrs. E. E.
Shepard, state president of the W. C.
T. U., and in emphasizing her gratitude, the state president of the temperance society went so far as to announce that, although at heart she is a Republican, yet on the present occasion she would vote for principles rather than party, indicating her favor towards the Democrats.

The affair tonight at which Mrs.
Shepard was the principal speaker was held in the opera house under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U., and was well attended. Mrs. J. W. Aird, president of the local union, presided, and first introduced Mrs. H. J. Hayward.

Mrs. Hayward made the point that the women of Utah, in voting at the coming election, should not vote for themselves or their own direct present interests, such as voting for vital would be beneficial for their children, and urged the women to use their votes for the moral reform of the state.

Alleged Examples.
Mrs. Shepard was free in her expression of gratitude toward the Democratic party of the state of Utah. She admitted that in the inclusion of a prohibition plank in the platform of the party leaders had done something that she had not expected of them, but in order to show her appreciation she would forget her party principles and support the principles of the temperance movement, and would favor the Democratic party.

The speaker thought that at the coming election the women of Utah are given a great opportunity to show their moral courage. In her arraignment of intemperance she charged the liquor traffic with being at the bottom of nearly all the vice and immorality existing.

Mrs. Shepard said she had been told in Salt Lake that prohibition would retard the city's welfare, but in answer to this she said that such a view was a mistake. She pointed to the Pasadena, Cal., Birmingham, Ala., Oklahoma City and Muskogee, Okla., had had large growth under "dry" conditions.

The Garden City quartet furnished the musical features of the evening's program.
